

Congratulations, you scored 20 out of 20!

Number	Clue	Street
1	In 1870 Costanos was appointed postmaster and installed Poway's first post office in his home.	Paine
2	Solon grew peaches, apricots and pears in Poway's north valley region. Selling most of his land in 1883, Solon moved to San Diego and in 1885 partnered with famous San Diego horticulturist Kate Sessions in the purchase of the San Diego Nursery.	Blaisdell
3	This pioneer family homesteaded in southwestern Poway along what is now Garden Road. Clement was the second doctor to arrive in Poway.	Flint
4	This Irishman arrived in San Diego by mistake. Philip is believed to have been the first white settler in the Poway area around 1859.	Crosthwaite
5	This forgotten town east of Poway once had it's own school district and post office.	Stowe
6	Ralph and his father Norman ran a successful dairy in Poway in the early to mid 1900s and sold dairy products along Poway Rd.	Powers
7	Almost 90 years before the deli of the same name, Andy was playing on the Poway Baseball Team.	Kirkham
8	The family home was moved from Garden Road to Old Poway Park.	Nelson
9	Born to Poway grape growing and wine manufacturing parents, Carl flew P-47s with the 86th Group 527 Fighter Squadron during WWII.	Iavelli
10	In 1883 Louis moved to Poway, becoming the town's first medical doctor.	Hilleary
11	Born in Poway in 1887, Fletcher later moved north and was Mayor of Los Angeles from 1938 to 1953.	Bowron
12	Although Spanish sounding, this name was coined in 1920 after the union of the three school districts in the area.	Pomerado
13	Mealing stones left by early Native Americans that inhabited the area.	Matate
14	Max built the first tract homes in Poway in the late 1950s along Pomerado Rd. called "Poway Valley Homes."	Berlin
15	In 1886 John was the first person to be buried in this cemetery that is named in his honor.	Dearborn
16	A road named by Ed van Dam that connects the cities of Escondido, Poway and Lakeside.	Espola
17	J.C. and J.C. Jr. arrived in Poway in 1889. Each bought twenty-five acre farms near Espola and High Valley Roads. Crops of fruit and vegetables were grown and marketed in San Diego.	Kear
18	Know by the early natives in the area as "here, the waters meet."	Poway
19	Once a route for the stage heading to Escondido.	Old Coach
20	The only numeric street in Poway.	Ninth